Each year we follow the passion of Christ in the heart of the city, where people carry their cross every day. Through music, Gospel passages, reflections, and silent procession, we hope to enter more deeply into the event of Good Friday and its meaning for us today. We ask to experience the exceptional Presence of Christ among us as a real answer to the needs of our hearts.

As we process on Good Friday, we join with the entire Church, the Church throughout the world and the Church throughout the ages, in remembering what Christ's suffering and death mean - not remembering what it meant - but remembering what it means for us here and now and means for all people in every place and time.
