Date _____

I, We, the parent(s) of _____ request that our child be allowed to participate in Communion and Liberation's East Coast GS Vacation at Table Rock State Park in South Carolina from June 28 - July 3th, 2019.

I understand that you and the other adults responsible for the vacation will take reasonable precautions against accident, personal injury and loss of, or damage to, property while going to, from and at the sites of the vacation, but that you and the Human Adventure Corporation are not assuming any legal liability for any such occurrence except any liability based on failure to take such reasonable precautions.

I understand that if my child's behavior should at any time pose a threat to his/her own health or well-being or that of any other pilgrimage participant, I will be responsible for my child's early return transportation.
